Universal Dispute Resolution Policy (UDRP)

- Dispute Resolution by court
- Alternative dispute Resolution by arbitrage (ADR)

Registrars in their offerta agreement with registrants should have a clause that the Registrant in case of dispute should necessarily agree to a dispute resolution by arbitrage.

- Any dispute between a registrant and the appellant must be finally solved by the "RA Chamber of Commerce" arbitrage.

ADR.eu

ADR.eu — Arbitration center for internet disputes

The alternative dispute resolution (ADR) for .eu domain name disputes is provided by the Prague-based Arbitration Court attached to the Czech Chamber of Commerce and the Agricultural Chamber of the Czech Republic (the "Czech Arbitration Court"). The Czech Arbitration Court administers ADR Proceedings according to ADR Rules and ADR Supplemental Rules (based on the European Union legislature: Regulation (EU) 2019/517 and Regulation (EU) 2020/857).

UDRPdisputes — Arbitration center for internet disputes

UDRP (Uniform Dispute Resolution Policy and Rules) is an alternative dispute resolution for all generic top-level domain names (gTLDs) and some country-code top-level domain names (ccTLDs).
